Student Agreement with Barry County Christian School

To be signed by all Barry County Christian School students.

1. I promise to abide by the standards and rules of Barry County Christian School. My promise includes abstaining from smoking, drinking, profanity, sexual misconduct, misuse of Internet social sites or emails, or purposefully doing anything that would harm the Christian testimony of the school while registered at BCCS.
2. I will do my best to work up to my ability as a student and will maintain a cheerful, cooperative attitude while a student at Barry County Christian School. The faculty will receive my respect and obedience at all times.
3. I understand that attending Barry County Christian School is a privilege afforded me by my parents, and that failure to abide by the standards of the school may result in my expulsion from the school.
4. By signing this agreement, I willingly surrender any rights that I may have to file a lawsuit against Barry County Christian School for any present or future legal claim that I may have involving or affecting the school. Instead, because the Bible commands Christians to settle their disputes privately or within the church, I promise to resolve any disputes involving or affecting the school, its employees or its volunteers privately or through the mediation or arbitration procedure available through the Institute for Christian Conciliation or the American Arbitration Association.
5. I understand that this document is a legally binding agreement with Barry County Christian School, my parents or guardians, and myself.

Parents of elementary students, please read and discuss the material in this agreement so your child understands what he/she is signing.
